The proposed By-Law changes to Article V, Section 6, Paragraph D and Article VIII, Section 1, Paragraph C voted on at the January 8th Membership Meeting both failed to obtain the two-thirds vote needed to pass. Both By-Laws stand as currently written in our By-Laws.

CURRENT BY-LAW: Article V, Section 6, Paragraph D.:

D. Members who have failed to meet their financial obligation to the Lodge by January 31st, and also failed to make special arrangements for payment of dues as provided in Paragraph C herein above, shall be dropped from membership. Members dropped for non-payment of dues shall be eligible to re-apply for membership upon payment of their past dues, the $10.00 late payment penalty and a $50.00 application fee. The decision to accept such member back into the Lodge will be made by the Board of Directors after consideration of a recommendation from the Membership Screening Committee. In the event the Board of Directors accepts such member back into the Lodge, the membership status of such member shall then reflect continuous membership, as though there were no gap in their term of membership as a result of this incident.

CURRENT BY-LAW: Article VIII, Section 1, Paragraph C.

C. No regular or special meeting of the Lodge shall be declared open unless a quorum is present. The presence of not less than 75 members in good standing shall constitute a quorum. When only 75 members are present at a regular or special meeting, a two-thirds vote is required in the matter of soliciting funds, except for the ordinary Lodge administration expenses.

Racine Italian Welfare Association (RIWA)

Throughout Roma Lodge's rich history, running the business side of the club has been undertaken by the Racine Italian Welfare Association (RIWA). This group was originally referred to as the "Building Committee", later the "Board of Trustees" and now the "RIWA Advisory Committee". In the past, these were elected positions. The elected members within the RIWA Committee would then select their president and officers. Currently, Roma Lodge's president serves as Chairman and he appoints the other committee members. The function of the RIWA Advisory Committee is to monitor and make recommendations on RIWA operations to the Roma Lodge Board of Directors.
